The Race Together

Last weekend was the world-renowned running of the Kentucky Derby. That may not mean much to most of us, but you do not have to be a horse racing enthusiast to appreciate the ending of this particular race...or what happened after the race.

In a stunning turn of events, the eventual race winner, who was sitting in last place mid-way through the competition, surged through the pack. As he steadily passed opponents, he finally reached 2nd position, trailing only one competitor, which battled to preserve the marginal lead. In a suspenseful finish, he overtook the final obstacle, taking 1st place, edging out the 2nd place finisher by mere centimeters. From last to first! On its own, that would be enough to make the headlines (and it was). But this is what added to the excitement:

2nd place jockey: Irad Ortiz Jr. (right)

Brothers.

At the conclusion of the race, the owner of the 2nd place horse approached his jockey Irad Ortiz Jr., wrapped his proud, encouraging arms around him and said, "If you're ever going to lose, you lose to your brother. Family won today."

The image of a sibling raising the arm of another is truly the picture of the gospel that has been on my mind these days. We are God's church, spiritual siblings, running the race of the Christian life together, longing for the day we receive the crown of life that belongs to those who have conquered in Jesus' name. We run the race individually, but not only individually. We run the race with one another. As we build up one another, we do it to the end that others also would run their race with endurance to win the prize.

One difference between our race and the Kentucky Derby is that none of us have to lose our race; we are all victors, not because of our fight or grit or training, but because Jesus conquered every opponent on his way to the resurrection victory circle.

And on the day of our victory, family wins.
